Happy trails

May is the perfect time to hike through suburban nature centers

Hot, hot, hot

Get the weekend off to sizzling start with Flaming Drink Fridays at Bloomingdale's Shiraz on the Water. From 5 to 10 p.m., the lounge offers six flaming drinks for $6. Martini lovers might want to check out the flaming lemon drop, while those with a sweet tooth shouldn't miss the s'more — Crème de Cocoa Dark, Bailey's Irish Cream and Bacardi 151 topped with tiny marshmallows that get nice and toasty when the 151 is set ablaze.

Fans of beer, betting and ballgames find a home at Stanley's

By Samantha Nelson
Daily Herald Correspondent

When he was growing up in South Elgin in the early '80s, Scott Stanley would often go with his family to O'Shea's Irish pub. In December, Stanley bought O'Shea's former space, which had become Lucky's Night Club, and spent months restoring it to the style he remembered before opening Stanley's Ale House in February.
